

GREAT IS THEIR FALL.

NEW-YORK SUFFERS ANOTHER HUMIL-

LATING DEFEAT AT BOSTON.

THE GIANTS MADE A FEW RUNS, BUT THEY
WERE NOT WORTH COUNTING—COSTLY
ERRORS KEPT THE BOSTON MEN
RUNNING BASES.

BY THE TRIBUNE.]

Boston, July 21.—The Giants were again slaughtered to-day, the champions winging as they pleased. Meekin's curves were batted all over the field, and his support was hardly of the sort generally seen at the Polo Grounds. Fuller's errors were particularly costly. That in the fifth inning was largely responsible for the four runs made by Boston, and after that New-York had no chance. Outside of their batting, the work of the Boston team was not particularly good. The Giants' hits were scattered, and they were productive of few runs. Duffy's all-around work was superb.

It rained hard before the game, but the grounds were in fair shape, and over four thousand people were present. No runs were scored until the fourth inning, when Duffy put a little fly over the left-field fence, which would have been an easy catch on any other grounds, but which is called a home run here in Boston. The Giants tied the score in the next inning; Van Halteren hit safely, and Terman reached first on a foul by Nash. Farrel and Meekin were retired, but Fuller hit safely to left, and Van Halteren scored. Fuller's error in the fifth, hits by Lowe and Long, a two-bagger by McCarthy, led to a base on balls; gave Boston four runs. A three-base walk—won by S. Liebold, of the Pastime A. C., second; W. D. Letson, of N. Y. A. C., third; time, 1 min. 32 sec.
